Former State Representative Joan Bauer today officially announced her endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate's 23rd district. Representative Bauer's district primarily covered the city of Lansing, where she served for three terms before becoming term-limited in 2012.

"It has been my pleasure to get to know Curtis and work with him," said Bauer. "He has been a conscientious public servant, dedicated to making our community better for all of us. I'm pleased to announce my support as he prepares to take his values and work ethic to the Michigan Senate."

"I want to thank Joan for her years of public service," said Hertel in response.

"Receiving her endorsement is very important to me. She has been a pillar in our community for a long time, and has set a great example for all of us who aspire to work in the legislature. I plan to follow the example that she has set, working diligently for everyone in this district, especially the working families and seniors here in mid-Michigan."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
