Leslie City Mayor & City Council Member Endorse Hertel

Curtis Hertel Jr. today announced that he has been endorsed by the City of Leslie Mayor Pete Zamora, and Leslie City Council member Jennifer Shuster, for his bid for the State Senate 23rd District.

Mayor Zamora stated "I am endorsing Curtis Hertel Jr. for the State Senate, because I believe he will be a positive voice for all of the people." Leslie Councilmember Jennifer Shuster added, "Curtis Hertel is the perfect choice to represent our district in the State Senate. I believe he will continue to fight against issues that plague our state, just as he's done diligently for Ingham County as the Register of Deeds."

"This endorsement is significant and shows the broad support we are gathering throughout the district," Hertel said. "The rural areas of our district add a special diversity to our urban centers. Discovering balanced solutions for the problems of the larger municipalities, and simultaneously addressing the concerns of our smaller cities, is one of the unique challenges of representing Ingham County. I want to thank Mayor Zamora and Councilwomen Shuster for their support, and assure everyone in the 23rd Senate District that if I am elected, I will be attentive to issues that affect all of our county citizens, both in the urban and rural areas."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
