Today the Honorable Virgil Bernero, Mayor of the City of Lansing, and former Michigan Senator, has officially endorsed Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate 23rd district. Mayor Bernero, like Hertel, started his political career by serving on the Ingham County Commission before moving on to the Michigan legislature.

Recently, Mayor Bernero has worked closely with Hertel to protect Lansing families during the mortgage crisis. "I have known Curtis Hertel for years," Bernero said. "As Register of Deeds, his work has been invaluable in helping countless Lansing families keep their homes. Curtis will make a great state senator."

"Having the support of my colleagues is important, and the Mayor of Lansing's endorsement is especially significant for this campaign. We share many of the same concerns for the hard-working men and women here in the Lansing area, and we both understand the importance of keeping them on the job, and in their homes," Hertel said. "I also want to thank Mayor Bernero for his support, and for recognizing my commitment to the residents of Lansing, the largest municipality in the 23rd Senate District. I promise to work hard on their behalf, should I be elected to the Senate."

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd District of Michigan's Senate.
