FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

We are pleased to announce that Curtis Hertel Jr. has received the endorsement of the Michigan State Building and Construction Trades for the Michigan State Senate seat in the 23rd district. The Building Trades are affiliated with the Michigan State AFL-CIO, and are a group of craft trades that strive to provide quality services with a safe work environment.

“I have seen first-hand the level of detail that these trades put into their training, both in the area of safety and in their improvement of worker skills,” Hertel said. “I was pleased to speak with Financial Secretary Treasurer Pat Devlin and President Zane Walker this week, and to receive their letter of endorsement.”

“They know how important the working families of mid-Michigan are to me, and I want to thank the Michigan State Building and Construction Trades for putting their trust in me. I share their commitment to safety and fair wages, and if I am elected to the Senate, I will work every day to help our working families secure their place in a strong middle class.”

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and announced his candidacy for the 23rd District of Michigan’s Senate in late 2013.
