Clean Water Action, Michigan endorses Curtis Hertel Jr. for 23rd District State Senator

Curtis Hertel Jr. has received the endorsement of Clean Water Action Michigan for his bid for the Michigan State Senate 23rd District. Clean Water Action has a million members across the country, and is committed to protecting our environment, health, economic well-being and community quality of life.

"The candidates we have endorsed like Curtis Hertel Jr. place protecting our Great Lakes among their top priorities," said Nic Clark, CWA Michigan Director. "We have confidence in the strides they will make toward protecting our Great Lakes and environment. In this critical time, we are working hard at the doors and on the phones to get the right people in office to protect Michigan's waters, and we are proud to say that Mr. Hertel is one of them."

"I have always been concerned about our environment, and I feel that we all share in the responsibility of its protection," Hertel said. "I want to thank Clean Water Action, and all of its members, for putting their trust in me, and for recognizing my commitment to our environment. I look forward to working with the CWA if I am elected."

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and is a candidate for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
