The Greater Lansing Labor Council today officially announced their endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate's 23rd district, in Ingham County. The GLLC represents over 16,000 working families, from 40 different labor unions in the Lansing area.

“The Labor Council thanks Mr. Hertel for always working to serve the people in our community”, said Glenn Freeman III, President of the Greater Lansing Labor Council. “We look forward to partnering with him in the future, to keep our area’s working families on the job, and away from the unemployment lines.”

“I couldn’t be prouder today to receive the support of the Greater Lansing Labor Council,” said Hertel. “This endorsement is meaningful to me, and I’m looking forward to getting to work in the Senate to reinforce legislation that supports our middle class. I will do my utmost to honor their commitment, with my support of hard-working families across the state.”

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan’s Senate.
