FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

We are pleased to announce the endorsement of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 665 and 352, as well as the statewide IBEW Council. These two local unions represent over one thousand members, including construction electricians and the members of Lansing's Board of Water and Light.

Ron Byrnes, business manager for IBEW Local 352, which represents BWL workers, stated, "Curtis is an obvious choice for us: he is a proven advocate for working families and shares our core values of protecting workers and the middle class. I believe he will make a great State Senator." Scott Clark, Business Manager for IBEW Local 665, which represents construction electricians, added that "Curtis has always been a fighter for working families, he's a natural leader who is the right person at the right time for this job."

"I am proud to have earned the support of the IBEW and will continue to fight for working families if I am elected," Hertel said. "I want to thank the brothers and sisters of the IBEW for their continued support, and hope to be a voice for them and for all working families in Michigan."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and has placed his name on the ballot for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
