FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Curtis Hertel Jr. has received the endorsement of the Iron Workers Local 25, in his campaign for the State Senate's 23rd District. The Iron Workers represent over 300 members and retired members in the Lansing area and Ingham County, under the leadership of Jack O'Donnell, their business manager.

In a letter from the organization, they stated, "Iron Workers Local 25 proudly endorses Curtis Hertel Jr. for the 23rd District of the Michigan Senate. The residents of Ingham County need progressive change, and a person such as Mr. Hertel who is willing to stand shoulder to shoulder with them. We feel Mr. Hertel will represent the needs and concerns of working individuals and their families".

"I'm proud to receive the endorsement of the Iron Workers Local 25 today. I have seen their commitment to their members, to their training, and their concern for worker safety," Hertel said. "I am a loyal supporter of the Building Trades Unions, and recognize the significant commitment they have to quality work. I want to thank the Iron Workers for their support and look forward to working with them if I am elected."

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and is a candidate for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
