Ingham County State Representatives Andy Schor, Tom Cochran and Sam Singh all officially announced today their endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate's 23rd district. The three State Representatives collectively represent the citizens of Ingham County, and they all share their constituency with the sitting Senator of the 23rd district.

"Curtis Hertel has tremendous experience that he will put to good use for Ingham County residents. It was a privilege to learn from him when we served together on the Ingham County Commission, and to work with him at the Department of Community Health and during his time as Register of Deeds. Curtis will be a tremendous advocate and leader for residents of Lansing, Ingham County, and all of Michigan as the next State Senator for our district." said Representative Schor, expressing his support for Hertel.

Tom Cochran added "Curtis Hertel is a dedicated public servant, who has spent his career standing up to big banks and fighting for homeowners across Ingham County. I am confident that Curtis will make an excellent State Senator and am proud to give him my endorsement."

Sam Singh, who is also Hertel's State Representative, has been working with Hertel for years in the East Lansing and Meridian Township area. "This is an easy choice. I know Curtis to be a proven fighter, and we need people in Senate who will be fighters. I look forward to working with him to make Michigan a better place for the working families, children, seniors and the poor who have been hurt by the present administration," said Singh.

"It means a lot to me to receive the endorsement of my peers and in this particular case, the endorsement of three people who share my values of putting people first. This is a great day and I am proud that I have earned their respect and support" said Hertel. "I will do my best to live up to the good example they have set, and work with them to deliver a strong unified front here in Mid-Michigan. I'm looking forward to getting to work in the Senate to reinforce legislation that supports our middle class values."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
