The Senior Senator from Michigan, U. S. Senator Carl Levin, officially announced his support of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate's 23rd District today. Senator Levin has served in the Michigan Senate for 35 years, and is presently the Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Armed Services.

Senator Levin stated, "I'm pleased to endorse Curtis Hertel, Jr. for the 23rd District Senate seat. His long and dedicated service to the residents of Ingham County and the State would be highly valuable in the State Senate."

"The endorsement of Senator Levin means a lot to me, his long-standing commitment to the citizens of Michigan and to our great country are an inspiration to all of us who are called to public service," said Hertel. "I have been an admirer of Senator Levin's exemplary career, and will proudly make it my goal to serve with the same principles and values that have earned him the respect of people across the country."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
