Michigan Federation of College Democrats endorse Curtis Hertel Jr. for 23rd District State Senator

Curtis Hertel Jr. is pleased to announce that he has received the endorsement of the Michigan Federation of College Democrats, a confederation of college Democrat chapters throughout the State of Michigan. "Receiving the support of this great group of young women and men, who are dedicated to progressive ideals and higher education, is a tremendous honor," Hertel said upon receiving the news. "It's so impressive that these students are able to balance their commitment to the political process with their day-to-day struggles of classes, working and studying. I'm pleased that these hard workers are endorsing me to go to work for them in the State Senate."

"Curtis Hertel has shown that he is committed to tackling the problem of growing college education costs, and he shares our interest in retaining talented graduates to grow Michigan's economy into the 21st century. As a strong advocate for the progressive values that our membership embraces, he will bring the kind of leadership that Michigan needs to build towards our future," said Curtis Audette, President of the Michigan Federation of College Democrats.

"As a former Vice President of the Michigan Federation of College Democrats, and past President of the Michigan State University Democrats, I know the impact that students at our colleges and universities can have on the political front, and I know how important it is that their voice be heard," Hertel said. "I want to thank them for their support."

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and announced his candidacy for the 23rd District of Michigan's Senate in late 2013.
