The men and women of the Michigan Professional Fire Fighters Union have given their endorsement to Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan 23rd Senate seat, which covers most of Ingham County.

“I’m very pleased with this endorsement,” said Hertel. “These are the men and women who run into a burning building when we are all trying to get out. In my book, that is the definition of a hero. I understand their commitment to keeping the public safe, and that makes this endorsement valuable to me.”

Chris Lake President of the International Association of Fire Fighters Local 421 said “We are proud to announce our endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the 23rd District of the Michigan Senate. Curtis Hertel Jr. has shown a long history of working to protect the rights, health and well-being of the citizens of Ingham County, and we are confident that as a Senator, Mr. Hertel will continue to fight for those rights, to protect the citizens at the next level. We look forward to working with Mr. Hertel to provide essential Fire and Emergency services to the communities that we serve.”

“First responders were held up as heroes in the wake of 911, only to be overlooked in recent years,” said Hertel. “The public needs to know that these heroes have had their wages and benefits cut, and have seen their employment numbers drop, which puts us all at risk. I look forward to advocating for them, as well as for all working families, should the voters choose to send me to the Michigan Senate here in the 23rd District.”

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and is presently a candidate for the 23rd District of Michigan’s Senate.
