Greater Lansing Clergy Forum Endorses Curtis Hertel Jr. for 23rd District State Senator

Curtis Hertel Jr. is pleased to announce that he has received the endorsement of the Greater Lansing Clergy Forum, a group of pastors and clergy from twenty-six churches in the Lansing area. "Receiving the support of this distinguished group of community leaders is a tremendous honor, and I am humbled by it," Hertel said upon receiving the news. "Their dedication to the people of our city is an example we can all be proud of."

Dr. Melvin T. Jones, President of the Greater Lansing Clergy Forum, stated "The Greater Lansing Clergy Forum is proud to endorse Curtis Hertel Jr. for State Senate. Curtis has shown himself to be reliable, competent and concerned about leveling the playing field for the citizens of greater Lansing. His tenure as Ingham's County Register of Deeds proved his willingness to stand up for community interests, over that of big business. We urge your support of Curtis Hertel for the State Senate."

Hertel added. "I want to extend a heartfelt thanks to all of these clergy who have put their trust in me. Their ministry in Lansing is about putting people first, and I have always felt that this should be the primary duty of an elected official as well. Their example will inspire my service."

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and announced his candidacy for the 23rd District of Michigan's Senate in late 2013.
