Planned Parenthood endorses Curtis Hertel Jr. for 23rd District State Senator

Curtis Hertel Jr. has received the endorsement of Planned Parenthood Advocates of Michigan, in his bid for the Michigan State Senate 23rd District.

“In this critical time for women’s health, Planned Parenthood Advocates of Michigan is committed to supporting candidates who will stand up for women and families in Michigan. We know that Curtis Hertel Jr. will be a champion once elected, and we are proud to endorse his campaign for State Senate,” said Lori Lamerand, President of Planned Parenthood Advocates of Michigan.

“I fully support a woman’s right to make her own healthcare decisions, without the interference of government, and that is why I want to thank Planned Parenthood for the work that they do to advocate for women’s reproductive rights,” Hertel said. “I want to also thank this great organization for supporting my candidacy for the Michigan Senate, and I look forward to working with the leadership to of PPAM if I am elected.”

Curtis Hertel Jr. is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was first elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and is a candidate for the 23rd district of Michigan’s Senate.
