FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UAW Region 1C and the UAW Capital Area CAP Council have officially announced their endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr. for the Michigan State Senate's 23rd district, in Ingham County. The UAW represents over 35,000 working families and retired members, in the Lansing area and Ingham County.

"We are happy to announce the endorsement of Curtis Hertel Jr.," said Norwood Jewell, Director of UAW Region 1C. "Curtis & his family have always been strong advocates of labor, and he has been a consistent ally in this difficult climate for unions. We look forward to having him in the Michigan Senate fighting for working families."

Mike Green, President of the Capital Area CAP Council and UAW Local 652 added, "Curtis is just the kind of person we need in the Senate, a problem solver who gets things done."

"I could not be prouder today, receiving the support of the UAW," said Hertel. "This endorsement means a lot to me. I've had the support of the UAW throughout my career as a public servant, and I'm looking forward to getting to work in the Senate to fight for our middle class and the working families across the state."

Curtis Hertel is currently the Register of Deeds for Ingham County. He was elected in 2008, won re-election in 2012, and recently announced his candidacy for the 23rd district of Michigan's Senate.
