

Curtis Hertel Jr. for State Senate

November 6, 2017

Dear Friend,

Many of you have shared personal stories that have inspired me to introduce legislation aimed at preventing sexual assault, protecting our children while riding school buses, and requiring that teachers are trained in suicide prevention education.

Serving this community – working for you as your representative in the Michigan State Senate – is both a calling and an honor.

I am running for re-election in 2018 and facing a challenger next year. I was taught at an early age that there are two ways to run for office: unopposed or scared. I will not take this race for granted and I will run a strong campaign. Will you fight for me as I have fought for you?

Please join me at Beggars Banquet (218 Abbot Rd, East Lansing) on December 4th from 5:30 – 7:00 PM for a holiday reception and my re-election campaign fundraiser. Sponsors ($500), Hosts ($250), and Supporters ($100) will be recognized at the event. Individual tickets are $50 per person.

I hope you can join me.

Sen. Curtis Hertel, Jr.

P.S. Please RSVP no later than November 22 online at www.hertelforsenate.com/donate/2017-holiday-fundraiser, by returning the form attached, by contacting Caitlin O'Rourke at Caitlin@capitolfundraising.com or by phone at 517-485-9127.
